

I pray to God that I remember everything I am going to say now.

I started praying. I have seen how the water was covering the Earth. I have felt the depth of the water. Corpses of persons and of animals that I did not see clearly, and then I ended my prayer. After a few moments I went to my room and I felt moved to invoke the Holy Spirit, to sing, to call Jesus; I knelt down, it is as if I had been moved to get on my knees, and has come to me the passage where Our Lord says: "Call Me and I will answer you, and will reveal to you secrets of things hidden that you do not know" I have felt this passage been revealed in my heart. I have called Jesus and have told Him: "Jesus" I have felt moved to sing to the Holy Spirit, I felt like I have been told what to do next, I continue invoking the Spirit; and it has been there where I stayed in recollection, in a deep recollection. I could not move, I was completely in God, with the eyes closed I was not feeling anything more than this immobility, this is how it feels to be in God. It was impossible for me to move, or to speak, or to do anything because I was completely in the Lord.

Then it has come to me again: the sea. An earthquake in the sea. Darkness has come. I have seen the terror and the panic of the people when the water of the sea is approaching, an immense volume of water traveling with an incredible force. I have seen the terror of the people when this water was coming down on them. There were buildings that were collapsing, they were falling down. I have seen fire emanating from the ground. I have seen the terror of the people. I have heard these words: "Daughter, they do not pay attention to Me," It was a Paternal voice, a voice of much weight, a voice of much weight. I have understood "They do not pay attention to my warnings". Also it came to me during the vision: "I will rid all the evil of the Earth". I have seen small groups with a white light, where the Lord was, spread throughout the Earth. I have understood the fidelity that should be in the group where we are, fidelity to the grace that the Lord is giving us. Because, I don't know how to say, it was like an absolute faithfulness to the Lord that is necessary to have because of the grace He give us.

Then I have seen something terrible. It was like a zone that had opened up and was like an abyss, something which was empty and dark, as dark brown. And I have felt very afraid when I saw it and remained overwhelm. There were many demons coming out of that abyss, so many that they filled the earth everywhere and did damage to the people, a demon tore the head of a person, although I didn't see it clearly.

Have seen the terror of the people, this has been the worst of all. Because although I was in this recollection in which I could not move, the pain was so immense that tears were falling down my face because of the terrible terror I felt inside.

After the demons, the red moon. People were staring at it and were overwhelmed. The sun was going out. People were looking at the sky with terror in their faces.

After this a few words have come to me: "Purification begins". After all this authentic terror and this panic of the demons, I have felt peace. Tears stopped.

Then I have seen the Cross of the Lord, I was holding on to it firmly. And I have known that it is the only refuge, there is no other, there is no another salvation, there is nothing in what we could protect ourselves from all this more than the Cross of the Lord. I was holding on to the Cross firmly, His feet were not an image, they were real and I kissed them. I was holding on to it firmly. I have learned all this: that the Cross of the Lord is our only salvation, our only refuge. There I was at peace, I was calm, He is the only one, there will be nothing else, nothing else everything was finished, Only in Him.

After this I have seen Jesus, but I have not seen Him clearly. He was no longer on the Cross, He was resurrected and I was with Him. But now the landscape had changed, was normal, there was light. It was like a mountain or something like that and I was sitting with Jesus on the ground and saw the people down below. I was reclining on His chest, embracing Him, and I was at peace, everything had ended. And I saw people under the mountain, and they were children playing and laughing, the landscape was completely normal, there was light and everything was calm, it was nice. All had passed already.

Then I saw that there were angels, angels flying through the air. The angels were visible, I have not seen them clearly but I saw them, they were there. I have remained at peace; the vision had already finished.

When everything bad was happening I have said: "What do I have to do?" I then understood: "be a witness; nothing more". During this vision I also heard: "I show you good and evil"

Later, when everything had already passed, even the vision of the new heaven and the new Earth, it has come to me that the Lord will do signs<sup>1</sup>.

I am at peace; I am impressed by all I have seen, but I have much peace.

I believe this is everything that the Lord has shown me.

<sup>1</sup> Signs in the Gospel refer to miracles. In the context of these visions miracles will be necessary to survive before the deficiencies and illnesses that will occur.
