

I had already finished the prayer, I was in my room and started to pray the Rosary, I was praying the first Hail Mary and as soon as I started I enter in that recollection. It happens when God wishes I have no control over it. I started entering into a deeper and deeper recollection to the point that I could no longer pray or move.

The first thing that I have heard is: "The loneliness"

The loneliness that will occur in the Earth, "No one will trust each other"

There has been a moment in which I heard: "What do you see?"

And I have said: "Nothing, Lord", Nothing was appearing, everything was dark, my eyes were closed from the beginning and I could see nothing. And then I realized that the darkness I was seen was, the darkness in the world. Then I saw as a small room, with a lit candle, the flame had a reddish hue. It was a room completely dark and closed; even the Windows were boarded up and inside were a few people on their knees praying. And it is when I have understood the darkness that existed in the world. Immediately after I could see nothing, just darkness, the same way as when you close your eyes, but in that darkness were portrayed very large waves, gigantic and these words came to me: "The roar of the sea". After this has suddenly appeared a fountain, a large fountain that was in the field or the street, of gray stone, water was coming out it and had a down flow since it was fenced and had a seat made of stone. Suddenly appeared a person, an old man with a white beard, of short average stature and not dressed in the clothing we wear today, wore a tunic and a fabric decorated on its chest. Then I have known that he was "an envoy"; it has sat down on the stone seat of the fountain and has drunk water. And after spending a little time sitting there he looked at what was before him, a ravaged and wasteland. Then he got up and went to a place where there was a group of people; I have known that were groups of God, groups of the Lord. In the vision a name has been said: Groups of Faith, and I have heard: "He will find them". He goes to these groups to 'bring news of God and to talk to them about the times'; he went to one group and then another, that was his mission.

Then, suddenly appeared a horse with a rider. The horse was powerful. The rider, the first thing that I have seen is that it was a large horseman and also powerful I have been shown its face, and it was black with red eyes. I did not like it, because when I've seen that horse, and that rider who had an aspect of power and poise, I was confused, I did not know if it was good or not, did not know even if it was Jesus; but what I saw was bad, but continued having doubts if I understood it well.

The horse was advancing at a gallop and the rider drew a sword. I continue to be confused, because at times it looked like Jesus, but I was not sure, but instead I felt he was bad and then I realized he was bad because it was hurting people with his sword. I don't know if at this time or a little later, when he put the sword on high it came to me: "the dead by the sword will rise from the Earth"

Then I saw the hands of this rider, they grabbed on to the reins, I was very afraid of this vision of the hands, even thou they were normal in appearance, were large and white. Horse was gray, very well groomed and with much poise. There is a moment in which this elder who was going through the groups of faith meets the rider but the rider cannot hurt him. The rider continues its way and the elder continues his way to another group of faith to bring it "God's news and to speak to them about the times". The elder continue his mission.

Later I have seen an open space, it was daytime, in the field, I have seen an army who was on its way to murder simple, humble, good people, people totally defenseless.

Also, suddenly, I have seen a rider on its horse, I do not know if the rider and the horse were the same that I first saw earlier, the head of the rider was covered, but in the vision I could see his face, it was a skull. It has come to me that "two third parts of humanity will die because of plagues, the war, epidemics, and all the calamities that will occur". The sky at a time has turned red; it was covered in blood, all blood that fills the Earth.

I've seen a very small child in the field among the tall green grass, dressed in white diapers. He was alone. And I have seen, not clearly, how a rider was murdering him brutally with the sword. And I have known that "the blood of the innocent will clean all the earth of evil"

In a moment of the vision I have heard: "They do not believe me, daughter, and they are not going to have time to be prepared". I continue to follow the vision. I was entering in a deeper recollection.

Then I saw the figure of the Pope, a figure dressed as the Pope, I knew that he was the Pope. This rider was cutting his head. And then it was as if this rider turned into the Pope, taking the shape, figure, clothing; all the same as the Pope and sat on the throne of Peter.

But at the same time this rider with the horse galloping with its sword on the other hand continued on his way, but it was the same rider, the same villain, the one that it had transformed into the Pope.

I have seen and known that the groups of faith, which are persons that meet in secret, are guarded by an angel. Every group of faith is guarded by an angel.

A word has appeared in the vision: Monastery. Next I have heard: "this word will not exist on Earth". I have known that they will not exist, but the monks will integrate into the assemblies and communities of these groups of faith.

I have known and I saw that the evil one will fortify a city and in it will implement the terror, the horror and the tyranny. And those who do not support his plans will drag chains.

Then, suddenly in the sky has appeared the Virgin Mary; I did not see her clearly. But her figure, it was She in the sky.

Then the horse in which the rider was, runs away, it is scared and the rider turns around and falls down and cannot look at Her. It is like that he is knocked down for the first time, depressed, destroyed and fallen. The garbs of the Pope, who is not the Pope but the same rider, turn black and he covers his eyes, he cannot look at the Virgin Mary.

Then, there has been a moment in which I said: "Lord, I can no longer continue ". Because it was very intense already and tears were falling, I was feeling so much intensity that I have already said to the Lord that it could not continue; although in this state I cannot cry, I am in the state of peace, of calmness, of serenity for that I cannot weep but to give me strength, to help me because I could not continue. Tears fell in the presence of the Virgin Mary.

I've known that her tears, when they fall will destroy all evil.

It was as if all the evil that exists on Earth sought to hide, to conceal itself and destroy himself in the presence of the Virgin Mary; they cannot stand it, it is impossible. It was as if the Earth itself would swallow them.

She said: "I have come for my children"

Those that belonged to the groups of faith were coming out wearing white.

This has been the greatest thing: "I have come for my children". Evil cannot be in the presence of the Virgin Mary, she is the one who destroys it with her presence and with her tears; tears of pain for her child, for her children.

During this vision I would ask the Lord: "What do I have to do?: What do I have to do with these visions? And I have heard: "Keep them in your heart until the precise time that you will communicate them to all by My mandate"

When the vision ended I heard clearly: "Go and tell your spiritual director and let him figure out to whom this vision should be given before it is given to all"

The vision has ended, I have heard: "Go in peace".

I opened my eyes, but could not move still. I was in this state for a while until I was able to move.

It was then that I heard the following: "I make you a participant of what it is to come".
