

SECOND MESSAGE AUGUST .7. 2014

“I will have Mercy on you, when you recognize your faults.

This is a wicked and perverse generation that does not recognize their sin. Repent and you will live; otherwise, you will die. Only a contrite and repentant heart can have access to My Mercy; it is reserved only for the humble hearts.

This is my Word; listen and you will not die, and will save your souls.

Come children of My Father, come to Me, for I am meek and humble of heart¹. Do not take paths that lead you to eternal damnation, instead come to Me, stay with Me, I love you. No one loves more than the one who gives his life for his friends², I have given My life for you.

Hold on to the tree of the Cross and you will live. Do not take the road of death, instead that of life and on the last day I will find you well prepared”.
